

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 13

Thursday, March 18, 2010

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 9:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Maurice S. Kaprow, a retired United States Navy Chaplain of Winter Springs, upon invitation of Rep. Adams:

Eternal God, today as we gather in this august Chamber, we pause to thank You for the many blessings You have bestowed upon our great state of Florida and our nation. Thank You for making us the finest state in this, the world's finest country.

The members of this legislative body are in the midst of making vital choices for all who live and work here. Imbue them with the wisdom and courage to make difficult decisions during these trying economic times. As they strive together for the best solutions for all our citizenry, we ask for Your watchful and loving grace, to help them during their deliberations. May their insights lead to wonderful outcomes for every Floridian.

While we meet here in the safety of this Chamber, we pray for the safe return of all the members of our armed forces deployed to the four corners of the earth, for bringing the hope of democracy, where tyranny once ruled, and the specter of peace to those who, for years, cowered in terror and lived in tumult. Lord, protect these sailors, and Marines, soldiers, airmen, Coast Guardsmen. Guard their families, and give them the strength to endure until they return to their homes into welcoming arms and the warm embrace of those who they love.

Grant all of us life and peace, courage and wisdom, as we today and every day act in the best interests of all the constituents of this great state. In Your sacred name, I pray. Amen.

Under Rule 10.10(b), the bill was referred to the Engrossing Clerk.

Reconsideration

Rep. McKeel moved that the House reconsider the vote by which CS/CS/HB 1207 passed, which was not agreed to.

Immediately Certified

CS/CS/HB 1207 was immediately certified to the Senate.

Point of Order

Rep. Waldman raised a point of order, under Rule 11.7, that in order to immediately certify a bill to the Senate, it must be properly reconsidered. In this instance, the reconsideration can take place the same day or the next legislative day, and until that time it is not proper to immediately certify the bill.

The Chair [Speaker Cretul] referred the point of order to Rep. Galvano, Chair of the Rules & Calendar Council, for a recommendation.

Rep. Galvano, Chair of the Rules & Calendar Council, stated that House Rule 11.7(a) provides that when a motion or main question has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order at any time as a matter of right on the same or succeeding legislative day for a member voting with the prevailing side, to move for reconsideration.

Rep. Galvano further stated that House Rule 11.7(h) requires the Clerk to retain possession of all bills for the period after passage during which reconsideration may be moved, and because no further motion to reconsider is in order, the period during which reconsideration may be moved has expired, and the bill shall be immediately certified to the Senate. The only other method of reconsideration before the body would be a unanimous vote of the entire body. That unanimous vote could do anything. So the proper period for reconsideration is as set out in House Rule 11.7(a), which requires the prevailing side member making the motion, as has been made by Rep. McKeel. Furthermore, pursuant to the Rules of the Florida House, the Speaker is the last interpreter of the Rules, and having already announced that the bill would be immediately certified, that interpretation has occurred.

Motion to Adjourn

Rep. Cannon moved that the House, after receiving reports, adjourn for the purpose of holding council and committee meetings and conducting other House business, to reconvene at 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 23, 2010, or upon call of the Chair. The motion was agreed to.

Messages from the Senate

The Honorable Larry Cretul, Speaker

I am directed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has passed SB 1264, as amended, and requests the concurrence of the House.

R. Philip Twogood, Secretary

By Senator Richter—
